INTERVIEW JEAN COPUS

Who inspires you and why?

My grandmother, because she is the most loving and hardworking person I know.

Do you have a charitable cause you care about?

Yes. But the environment is one on the top of my list. I like to pick up trash on my walks with my dogs, and I'm always trying to find ways to make a difference.

Do you prefer selfies or camera shots and why?

They are both equally as great and meaningful. Camera shots usually means I'm with friends.

What do you think is wrong with the world?

The world is fine, it's people not living in the moment...and understanding their part in the world that is the problem.

What's right in the world?

The way we all come together after disaster, we are all human:)

Should books be determined to be outdated and no longer functional?

Om, no way! Books are amazing. Just like a person might like to hold an actual photo in their hands, there is nothing like reading a good book.

Who is your favorite role model and why?
To be completely honest, I have random people in my life who I admire, I don't really have idols or role models.

Favorite teams:

well, I support Vegas, California, Colorado, but.. I like Boston teams over all.

Do you have a favorite number?

My fave number was always 13, I think when I was a kid I knew it was "unlucky" and I wanted to be daring.

Do you care at all about Astrology?

Yes, I am a Libra.

HAPPINESS IS...
ENJOYING A GOOD
PILLOW FIGHT

Thoughts on city life versus country life?
I have been blessed with the opportunity to live in both life styles. I actually have gone back and forth my whole life I could never be confined to just one.

Where will you be in exactly one year from this moment?

Hopefully doing what I am doing now , but just x10

Is it ever okay to cheat at anything, why or why not?

A cheat is unfair.

What would you wear on the perfect date?
I would be dressed perfectly for the occasion lol!!

One thing you'd change, if you ruled the world?

I would force people to recycle. Or at least care about the environment

My story in less than 5 minutes... impossible, but...

My name is - Jean Copus I was born in Northern California. I've moved around a my entire life, but currently am in Las Vegas.

I have had some major tragedies in my life, but they have inspired me and molded me into the person who I am today. I love living in the moment, I am a girl who is usually down for whatever adventure is ahead. I can be the life of the party, or one on one. I love modeling, and believe it is an art. I basically live for art, balance, traveling/ learning... the moment.

If your life was made into a movie, who would play your part and which actor would you want to be your leading man?

I would chose Margot Robbie, she's an amazing actress and I believe she could play any role given to her ( it's also a plus that I've been told I look like her )

Who inspires you and why?

I've always been inspired by Adriana Lima. I hope my beauty lasts as long as hers!

Victoria Jean Interview

Do you have a charitable cause you care about?

I care a lot about the ASPCA. Animals depend on us for good health and welfare!

Do you prefer selfies or camera shots and why?

Honestly, I like both. You get to see some of my goofy side through selfies and with camera shots you get to see my many faces and creativity!

What do you think is wrong with the world?

Too much hate

What's right in the world?

Coffee and naps! LOL

Should books be determined to be outdated and no longer functional?

Not at all! I believe we need books in case a major internet shutdown occurs!

Who is your favorite role model and why?

Angelina Jolie. She can do everything!

Favorite teams

Oh boy. For college, Oklahoma Sooners and NBA is OKC Thunder

Do you have a favorite number?

13

Do you care at all about Astrology?
I do! I have always believed that the aligning of the stars creates some energy on earth!

Thoughts on city life versus country life?

Honestly I've lived both. I love the quiet in the country and being able to see all the stars! In the city, I love being able to always have something to do!

Where will you be in exactly one year from this moment?

Building my empire

Is it ever okay to cheat at anything, why or why not?

No. Because cheating is also the same thing as lying or stealing! It kills trust!

What would you wear on the perfect date?
A beautiful red gown! I love red dresses!

One thing you'd change, if you ruled the world?

I would want to change the cost of college! It is so crazy how expensive it is to have a good education!

My story in less than 5 minutes...

I've literally lived in the Midwest most of my life, grew up in the country and then went to cosmetology school. I've been a licensed cosmetologist for almost 10 years and started modeling about 8 years ago. I moved to Oklahoma then been traveling to numerous places to vacation, model, or watch football! All these things have given me an opportunity to continue to fulfill my passion!

If your life was made into a movie, who would play your part and which actor would you want to be your leading man?

I'd have to say Angelina Jolie and Jason Statham

Who inspires you and why?

My biggest inspiration is probably my mother. She is such a strong woman and despite everything she has overcome that woman still finds a way to love hard everyday. She was also diagnosed with stage 3 ovarian cancer and she kicked its ass! I don't think I will ever find another person quite as strong as her.

Do you have a charitable cause you care about?

I donate monthly to Save the Children. I feel like no child should go hungry and if I have the ability to fight for that belief, I will.

Do you prefer selfies or camera shots and why?

I prefer camera shots. The image is much more organic and tends to capture the moment rather than a superficial pose from a selfie. Although, don't get me wrong, I love my snapchat!

What's right in the world?

I try not to find what is wrong with the world because the news and social media does enough of that. I try to find what is good in the world and focus on that. If anything is "wrong" with the world, its our tendency to only see whats bad with it.

What's right in the world?

So many things! The colors, the sensations, the happiness, the struggles, the flaws, and the beauty. All of this is what shapes us into what we are and I'd like to think that what we are is beautiful and hopefully true to ourselves.

Should books be determined to be outdated and no longer functional?

No, no, no. Absolutely not. Books should never be considered dysfunctional. I would cry. Whats better than the touch and smell of the paper in a book. The ability to carry it around and read it without wifi. I believe we are way to connected with technology these days. Books give us relief from the screen we stare at so often.

Who is your favorite role model and why?

Someone I often look up to is my dad. He's such an intelligent man and the hardest working person I have ever met. He can't stop, won't stop. Even after the job is done, he finds a new project to work on and he never fails to keep pushing me to become a stronger woman everyday.

Your favorite team?

Okay, so I know I may get a lot of crap for this considering they win almost every time and people hate teams like that but I cannot help but love the Golden State Warriors!

Do you have a favorite number?

I'm not sure how anyone could have a favorite number but I'll go with one considering I like to be number one! But don't get me wrong, I'm also no sore loser. I just tend to aim for perfection because I set my bar high!

Do you care at all about Astrology?

Hmm, astrology? I am a gemini and to be honest, I am EVERYTHING a gemini is described as...just about at least. People I meet even tend to match their signs description but some come along and are nothing like what they are claimed to be....sooo all and all I think it is a very unreliable pseudoscience butts fun to explore!

Thoughts on city life versus country life?

So, being the Gemini that I am, I have two very distinct sides to me. I enjoy both lifestyles very much. If I could live anywhere, it would have to be somewhere that has both realities for me to live in. Somewhere with lots of nature and with the bright city lights within driving distance.

Where will you be in exactly one year from this moment?

Who knows! Where I'd like to be is somewhere on a clear water beach with a refreshing mojito in my hand. I would settle for anywhere out of the country though because I love to travel and experience different cultures and their food too...can't leave out the ethnic food!

Is it ever okay to cheat at anything, why or why not?

I believe that cheating is honestly you just cheating yourself. You are setting the bar low for yourself. I think sense of accomplishment and hard work is much more satisfying than the award itself.

What would you wear on the perfect date?

So the thing about me is, I love to dress up! I love dresses, heels, and accessories. Yes, I am girly on the outside but I am very down-to-earth on the inside and don't mind getting my hands dirty. As far as a date though, probably a nice summer dress and some wedges or pumps. Simple but sexy.

One thing you'd change, if you ruled the world?

I would make education and medical expenses much more affordable because I believe these are necessary to a functioning world and many deserving people are not able to obtain them.

My story in less than 5 minutes...

I grew up a dorky, nerdy girl. I loved anime, math, science, video games, and dressed so terribly. Once high school came around I updated my game and discovered fashion and what goes with what. To this day I still have that nerdy gamer girl inside me but I just found a way to be fashionable while doing so.

If your life was made into a movie, who would play your part and which actor would you want to be your leading man?

Um, I'll have to go with Gal Gador because who doesn't love Wonder Woman! She's so beautiful and talented. As far as leading male actor, I'll have to go with Jason Momoa! Gal deserves the hottest of the hot!

"I'VE ALWAYS
SEEN MODELING
AS A STEPPING
STONE."

NACHALIE

PHOTOGRAPHY BY SCOTT THOMAS

Who inspires you and why?

God inspires me because he gives me hope.

Do you have a charitable cause you care about?

The Alzheimer's Association which is a non-profit organization focusing on care, support and research for Alzheimer's disease.

Do you prefer selfies or camera shots and why?

I prefer camera shots because I don't have to do all the work.

What do you think is wrong with the world?
I think wars, gun violence and the horrible things people do is what's wrong with the world.

What's right in the world?

I believe there's nothing right in the world at this moment.

Should books be determined to be outdated and no longer functional?

Books should definitely not be determined to be outdated and no longer functional because I love books. There's just something about being able to physically turn the page.
Who's your role-model?

My sister is my role model because she sets her mind on something and doesn't give up until she gets it.

Your favorite team?

My favorite team is the Yankees.

Do you care at all about Astrology?

Astrology is interesting but I try not to give it much thought because I'm religious.

Thoughts on city life versus country life?

The city life is way more energetic and fast paste just like me. The country life can be fun by riding horses and exploring the outdoors.

Where will you be in exactly one year from this moment?

I see myself in a new state, new house, financially stabled and living my best life.

Is it ever okay to cheat at anything, why or why not?

It's never okay to cheat because you need to be true to yourself and everybody. Where is the satisfaction in cheating? You have to stay genuine.

What would you wear on the perfect date?

I would wear something classy, comfortable and cute. The triple C's.

One thing you'd change, if you ruled the world?

If I ruled the world I, I would change how money is distributed so no one would have to live in poverty.

If your life was made into a movie, who would play your part and which actor would you want to be your leading man?

The actor that would play my part would be Blake Lively. The actor that would be my leading man would be Justin Bieber.

AMANDA LAUREN

Amanda Lauren is a glamour model who recently landed a spot as one of Maxim's Hot 100 for the 2017, with a favorable spot of third in the semi-finals. She recently modeled for the UK Luxe swimwear line, Amoir Camaira.

Growing up, Amanda pursued performance arts in her own time, choosing to focus on a pragmatic degree in nursing. A need for scenery change lead her to Los Angeles for nursing work, where she began modeling after hours as a second career. After dating a known Hollywood bad boy and becoming a point of media gossip, Amanda took to Europe for modeling work, shooting in Paris, Florence, and London.

Originally from a suburban town outside of the city of Philadelphia, Amanda now spends her time between in Paris or London. She has a B.S. degree in nursing and is pursuing a Master's degree in Nursing Education. Amanda spends her free with her personal trainer, focused on circuit training, HIIT, and boxing. She also enjoys interval training and cardio at the gym, jogging outdoors, pilates, and yoga. Amanda takes her dog, Mellow, on all her travel adventures.

INTERVIEW

Who inspires you and why?

Everything inspires me! My family, my label, and my daughter!

Do you have a charitable cause you care about?

Anything related to kids is important to me. Every Christmas with the help of some sponsors, I buy hundreds of gifts for kids in need.

Do you prefer selfies or camera shots and why?

Selfies are more authentic, and they show a more personal side of me. Camera shots on the other hand, allow me to show the different roles I can play.

What do you think is wrong with the world?

The lack of solidarity with less fortunate people is one of our problems. We live in a narcissist world where we focus on ourselves.

What's right in the world?

The equality that women are achieving during this time in history. Women are just as capable as men.

Should books be determined to be outdated and no longer functional?

Books will always be functional to people who want to open their mind to knowledge.

Who is your favorite role model and why?

Since I was very little my role model has been my mother. I have followed her steps and I am who I am because of her.

Favorite teams?

I always support La Seleccion Colombia! (Colombia's national soccer team).

Do you have a favorite number?

Number 5.

Do you care at all about Astrology?

I do. I find it interesting.

Thoughts on city life versus country life?

My family owns lands in the country, so I have always had a deep connection with country life. But following my dreams I ended in the city, which I enjoy too.

Where will you be in exactly one year from this moment?

I guess Mexico since is the place where I live right now, but you never know... The future is impossible to predict.

Is it ever okay to cheat at anything, why or why not?

I think cheating is wrong, the worst think a person can do is to mislead someone. At the end we are only tricking ourselves and we will always know that we weren't capable enough and we had to cheat. Cheating if for underachievers.

What would you wear on the perfect date?

I think it less about the clothes and more about the personality! And I have a lot of personality!

One thing you'd change, if you ruled the world?

Racism! We are all the same, nobody is less than anybody else.

My story in less than 5 minutes ...

I am a strong, capable, and worthy woman.

If your life was made into a movie, who would play your part and which actor would you want to be your leading man?

Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt

INTERVIEW

Who inspires you and why?

My biggest inspiration is myself. I believe in myself and know that I can accomplish almost anything I put my mind to. I have seen myself accomplish so much and to me that is inspirational.

Do you prefer selfies or camera shots and why?

Camera shots all the way!! I always feel so self conscious taking a selfie but regular photos are fine.

What do you think is wrong with the world?

We need more love! Like seriously, it would make a huge difference.

What's right in the world?

Some love still exists, and pot is becoming legal in more states and countries.

Should books be determined to be outdated and no longer functional?

They are absolutely not outdated! I love reading books, real books. There's something special and beautiful about having old school books to read vs a tablet or something electronic.

Do you have a favorite number?

I do have a favorite number. Guess what it is?.... My favorite number ever is number ..... 7. It's very lucky for me.

Do you care at all about Astrology?

Yeah I do. I'm a cancer.

Thoughts on city life versus country life?

I like both but I rather have the beach life. The city is fun but if I had to choose from the two I would take the country if beach life wasn't a choice.

Where will you be in exactly one year from this moment?

I have no idea and I love not knowing.

Is it ever okay to cheat at anything, why or why not?

No. Earn everything you do.

If your life was made into a movie, who would play your part?

I think Lady Gaga would make a good Josie Fox. I've been told quite a few times we look alike.
